Section D: Comprehension

Read the passage. Your answers must be based on the passage.

There was a young man. He was illiterate. He often saw people wearing spectacles when they read books. He thought, "If I have spectacles, I can also read like these people. I must go to town and buy a pair of spectacles too."

He set off to a town, entered a spectacle shop and asked the shopkeeper for a pair of spectacles. The shopkeeper gave him various pairs and a book. The man tried on all the spectacles, but he could not read anything. He frowned and told the shopkeeper that the spectacles were useless. The shopkeeper gave him a confused look. Next, he looked at the book. It was upside down! The shopkeeper said, "You don't know how to read."

The young man said, "No, I don't. I want to buy spectacles so that I can read like everyone else." It was then that the shopkeeper knew the young man's problem. Instead of laughing at him, he explained that spectacles can only help people see better. He encouraged him to learn to read and write.
